

About your decision

You have been talking to your doctor about the reasons that you might have for needing a pregnancy termination. Your answers to the following questions will help your doctor understand your situation

Please mark the relevant boxes below, and you may mark as many responses as seem to fit your circumstances.

This pregnancy was:

- a complete accident
- planned, but my situation has changed
- found to be abnormal

My decision to have my pregnancy terminated was:

- quite straightforward
- fairly easy, but needed some thought
- a bit difficult and I had to do a lot of thinking
- very hard to make
- I am not yet certain what I want to do

My reasons for terminating this pregnancy are that I:

- do not have enough money ready to support a child
- feel too young
- feel too old
- have enough children, my family is complete
- am concerned about the impact of this pregnancy on my health
- am no longer in a relationship
- have other concerns

I have discussed my situation with:

- my partner/husband
- my family
- friends
- no one at all

My partner/husband:

- supports my decision to have a pregnancy termination
- is ambivalent about my decision
- has not been told about this pregnancy
- opposes pregnancy termination
- is no longer relevant in my life

Do you feel pressured by other people to have or not have your pregnancy terminated?

- No
- Yes

Do you have any questions for the doctor or any specific concerns that you wish to discuss? Write them here or email us on gynaecare@clinic66.com.au

You may find some more useful information at abortiononline.com.au